SPECIAL ISSUE NO. II FEBRUARY, 1955

THREE SPEAKERS TO OUTLINE INTEGRATION SITUATION

The Wakefield High School PTA will hold a special meeting at 8:00 P.M., Wednesday evening, March 2, in the new auditorium, to hear three speakers present background facts concerning integration of schools.

Speakers for this meeting will be:

Mr. Benjamin Muse, Special Writer, Washington Post and Times Herald, who will discuss the Supreme Court decision of May 17, 1954, its social and historical background;

Mrs. Mildred Marcy, member of Wakefield School Advisory Committee. Mrs. Marcy will review the action taken by some localities to carry out the Supreme Court decision;

Mr. T. Edward Rutter, Superintendent of the Arlington County Public Schools, who will present statistics pertinent to the local situation, especially regarding Wakefield High School.

Mr. Langdon West, Wakefield PTA Parliamentarian, will be chairman of the meeting.

Students are invited to attend this educational meeting with their parents. The meeting will be devoted entirely to factual reporting by the speakers. (Future meetings will be arranged for general discussion by the PTA membership.)

This special PTA meeting, March 2, will provide an opportunity for everyone to get timely, factual information on a matter of great importance.
